Fr Henri-Marie Mottin is a Priest of the Emmanuel Community. Since being incardinated in the Diocese of Marseille in 1994 he has worked extensively in missions for youth and families. He was also Superior of the House of Formation in Brussels for 9 years. He completed his thesis on the indissolubility of marriage at the Faculté de Théologie et Institut des Sciences de la Famille, Lyon.

Currently Fr Mottin is responsible for clergy and seminarians of the Emmanuel Community; amounting to 270 priests, 30 deacons, and 90 seminarians, located in 40 countries.

THE EMMANUEL COMMUNITY

The mission of the Emmanuel Community is to offer a path to its members to answer God's call to holiness and proclaim Christ in today's world.

The Emmanuel Community lives its mission together as either priests, lay or consecrated. Members are called to live with the graces of: adoration, compassion and evangelisation.
